DEDICATION

THOMAS NORMAN NUGENT

Our coach, leader and sincere friend, is an inspiration in every phase of our school activities, representing the competitive spirit and the good sportsmanship that are so typical of the American way of life.

It is to this man with his friendly smile, kindly estimate of others, unfailing youthfulness, uplifting enthusiasm and energy, and his alert sense of humor, that we, the senior class, do proudly dedicate our 1949 Kaleidoscope.

"TRIBUTE"

These golden years have swiftly passed
And in their passing have we greatly gained.
This is our time, the crossroads of our life,
And in the many paths our feet shall soon be treading,
We will draw strength and courage from that steadfast beam,
That beacon from the torch of truth and learning
Forever held on high to light the way, to guide
Our stumbling footsteps through these difficult years.
We will make it a steadfast guide
In the shaping of our destinies.
And as we struggle forward toward our goals,
Striving for that knowledge which must be
The foundation all our souls can ever hold worthwhile,
We never shall forget the lifelong gifts we here received,
And with the passing of the years that follow
Our grateful hearts shall seek again
The benediction of our Alma Mater.

"OUT OF SCHOOL LIFE—INTO LIFE'S SCHOOL"

1

There is a shining beacon
Too bold mere eyes to see.
But grant our sight provision make
That we may someday be
Examples of the finer-the purer
When day is done;
And let our n'er faltering toil
Shine forth like silver in the sun.

2

And so, faith forever with us be
A flame and shining way
A spangled brightness
Lighting up the days;
With this bright eternal torch
To light the skies
We shall face life and death
With fearless eyes.

3

The faculty with honor
Forever held on high
Here to see that knowledge
Ne'r would pass us by;
Their never ending kindness
And helpfulness each day
Have made us want to better
And to follow in their way.

4

As graduating seniors
On a higher step we stand.
Our names are called-diplomas placed
Into each eager hand—
It is to us our life and joy
This proof of work well done,
For now we know from Hopewell High
The highest goal we've won.

5

To all you underclassmen
Heed this word of ours;
Be true and right in all you do—
Strive for the highest towers.
For there is no happier
Or sadder moment known—
Than this brief one—
Your destiny intoned.

6

In split seconds our thoughts
Retrace the years gone by;
We reminisce the happy hours
Spent at Hopewell High—
Our colors and our Alma Mater
Have meant the world to us,
And within our hearts we proudly hail
Ideals we must entrust.

7

To you we give a prayer at night,
To you we humbly bow,
Farewell to thee, our Alma Mater,
We're your alumni now.
For out into the world we go
With thought of the golden rule—
Education as our tutor—
"OUT OF SCHOOL LIFE—INTO LIFE'S SCHOOL."

JEAN WOOTEN

PROPHECY

Have you ever thought how nice it would be to have an out-of-school edition of the KALEIDOSCOPE to see just what has become of our wonderful '49 graduates? Ray Storm's "Fair Weather Printing Company," edited by James Thomas, had this idea and so we have this, the revised edition of the KALEIDOSCOPE of '49.

First, as we turn to administration and faculty, our eyes come to rest on Colonel Thomas Boyette, superintendent of schools; Bill McClements, assistant-superintendent; Berkley Howell, principal; with Ned Martin and Miss Elsie Sabol as assistants.

Turning the page we notice the physical education directors: Wesley Nedlock, crew cut, bow tie, and all, and Nancy "Slay 'em with work" Hardy. Look, the new English teacher, Barbara Armstrong, is wearing on her collar a navy pin which we are sure belongs to Admiral Phil Janosik, commander of the good ship—"Sad Sack."

Thelma Childers now teaches psychology. We hear she psychoanalyzes all the new teachers in her spare time. Marlene "You rip 'em, we sew 'em" Caudle, and Joyce "eat it and die" Connelly assisted by Joyce "scrub the" Hall are pictured as home economics teachers. Hayford and Schaaf have now taken over Mr. Grainger's job. Schaaf does the "mad scientist" experiments and Hayford has mastered the art of corny jokes. Loveable Jean Wooten now teaches geometry with all its curves and angles. Little Nancy Scott is the art teacher, and last but not least, Billie Lee Scott is now the school nurse.

In the senior division we see John "Rockefeller" Kreynus, senior vice-president of the "Taedter Chips" company owned by Jimmie Morris. Bill Bailey, a former leading football star, is now senior coach of Ledford Tech. Then, we couldn't leave out Kenny Warren who has made news by holding the senior title for sleeping (or should we say hibernating) longer than anyone else.

Faithful Pieter Van Benthuyzen missed his old desk so much that he moved it, by permission of the School Board, to his business office. Now he can really work!

PROPHECY

The next few pages of this annual devoted to the activities and organizations now carried on by our classmen. In place of the Student Council we have our National Government with Cecil "Honest John" Jackson, who just defeated Wayne Sprouse as candidate for president. Also, in the governmental department is Jimmie "You tell 'em" Sheets who has been handed his walking papers from the Senate for filibustering.

As for dramatics, Lillian Moore and Naomi Weston are competing to see who can get the most oscars, er...we mean "Irvins". The name was changed in tribute to Irvin Grant, the Cornel Wilde of the day.

The newspaper "What's Th' News?" is edited by Sue Lawrence who has a staff of very able reporters. Among them are: Jane Tippet, world famous gossip columnist; Rebecca Cox, who writes the column, "Petersburg Day by Day"; Edna Hudson "Fashions For Short People"; Doris Anne Renn, "Modern Speech"; Betty "Bly" Gates who writes advice to the "Lovelorn"; Virginia Burke, author of the book on "How to Get Rid of Freckles;" and Lilly Nosal who "Nos'al about it".

Now playing at Cibula Lodge are the "Colona Cavaliers" composed of Gene "Krupa" Lowe who drums up the business; Wilbert "King of Swing" Minor; Harry "Licorice Stick" Collier; Billy "Play 'em all" Wilkerson; and the "Bud-ding" young vocalist, Louise. This orchestra is managed by Ellis Abrams. The comedians of the show are Jerry "Abbott" Tew and Madeline "Costello" Synan, co-staring with Bob "Hopeless" Hainstock. Also on the program is the talented dancer, Barbara Sear, who dances to the music of Merle Hurlburt's accordion. Nancy Craven, Alice Crawford, and Lillian Slagle are featured as the "Three Musketeers on Skates."

The next division, professional sports, stars in football department, Eddie

PROPHECY

"Humphrey" Dean, former captain of I. O. University's I. O. U. team, ably assisted by Sonny Pentecost in the backfield. In basketball we find "Floogie" Moore and Bob "Basket-bound" Askew. In baseball, we have the pitcher, Donald "Strike 'em out" Woodlief with James "Butterfingers" Rusmisell as one of his team mates.

The girls' basketball team with Mary Sue Balint, Dot Wells, Shirley Hall, and Louise Daniel takes great pride in its "unbroken record". (They've been defeated 28 times out of 28 starts.)

At last, the division everyone looks forward to, the "Snaps". Here we see Billie Beauchamp with her cosy little family of ten (Aunts and Uncles we mean.) Millicent Moore is pictured showing off her engagement ring. In the next picture we see with two sailors—yes, you guessed it—Jane Hudson. Jack "Pretty Boy" Fischer and Pete "Look at 'em swoon" Wells are now Hollywood's favorites. Pictured modeling thte latest bathing suit is Dottie "Yum-Yum" Harlow.

Ann Ross and Georgia Zikes are shown in front of their hotel the "Hut-Sut Ross' House."

Last we see pictured a television station owned and operated by Beverley Booz who has as her secretary, Lois Bishop. Lucille Lewis, Adelaide Arvin, Phyllis Taylor, and Charlotte Treaster also are secretaries here since Bev writes prophecies in her spare time.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS!
THEIR LOYAL SUPPORT AND GENEROUS
CO-OPERATION MADE POSSIBLE THE PUBLICATION OF OUR YEAR- BOOK.

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolic of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

P.S.
Never forget the good times we've had - especially 4th period talking about "Wesley".
M.L.

April 29, 1949

Eleanor,

As the school years have passed,
and we have trod the dusty road through Dupont and now to N. W. S. I hope the rest of the way will be U.S. #1 highway rather than a (ancient truck road - Maloney).

It's really been good having the classes, and the latest gossip, that we pass around.

Maybe after we get through school, and are out facing the life's problems, I'll be in Washington Missionary College, and 'Cupid' will still try to start you on your love road. No kidding, you'll make an ideal wife, and a mother and grandmother.
I hope your nature given Talent will "hook" you one, and you'll live happily ever after.

Best of Luck -

Wm. Ronald Kerman
